DEDICATION

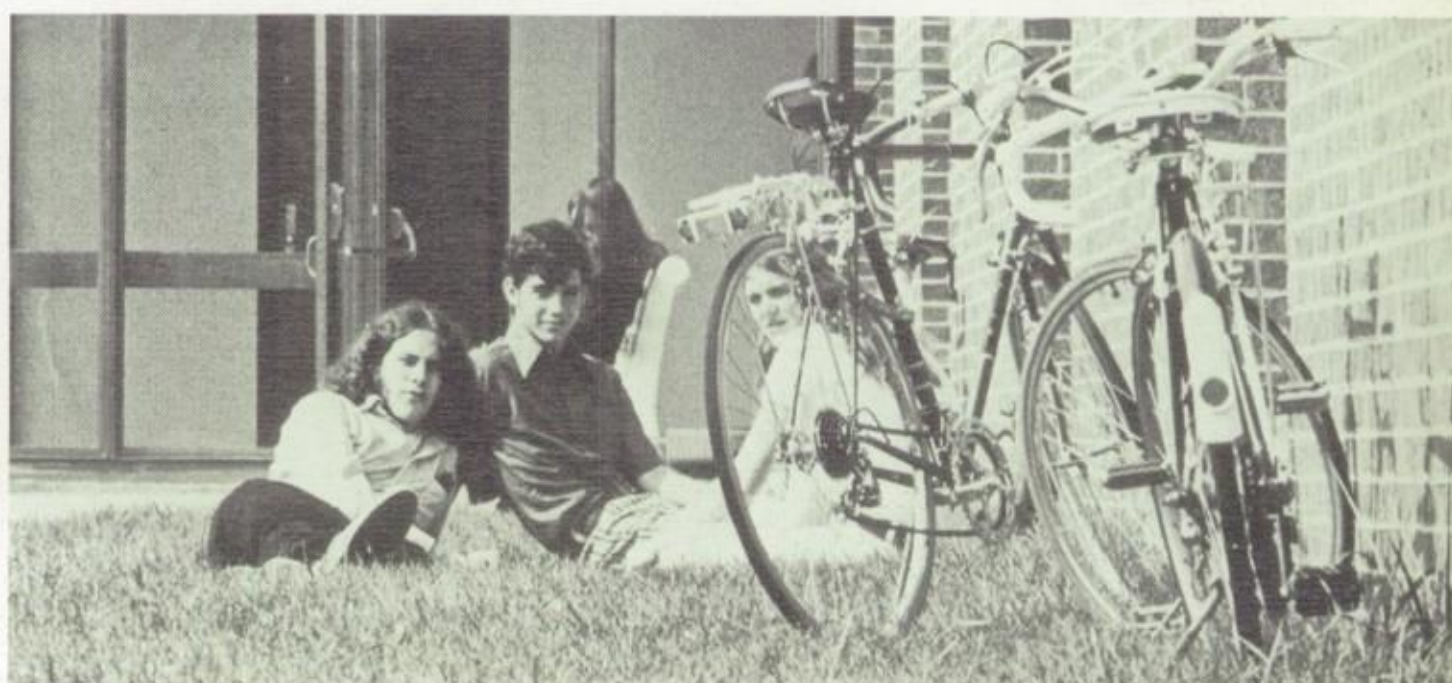

Together. We, for the first time are together. We have spent three years in this building, under these lights, pressed together in these common halls. We have felt the walls, these walls that have surrounded all of us. And the teachers, and the parents, the administrators, they have been here with us. They have become part of our lives here. And so it seems, with so many of us, some of us would clash; and some of us have. But there are those who have found an understanding here. We have realized, through all that we have experienced in the past three years, that we can be together, and appreciate each other.

We have had good times. For, we have been a group of individuals in communion, keeping our individuality but growing, growing all the time. Many of us have grown together. It has been good; we have learned about each other. And if for one moment we have appreciated each other's worth, touched each other in some small way, we have found a simple truth. The truth of what two human beings, many human beings can be together, when they have sought out each other and experienced what a common understanding can be. It is a celebration to be as one. And finally, we are.

DR. ROBERT E. DUNN

Dr. Dunn must relate to many groups and many individuals. Often he seeks out students and discovers their needs. He then attempts to change the school so that it more exactly meets these needs. He has done this. He is doing this. The new William H. Hall is proof of the quality of his work, his success, and his dedication.

Class of 1973

William H. Hall High School

975 North Main Street

West Hartford, Connecticut 06117

Dear Members of the Class of 1973:

The Class of 1973 has the distinction of being the first to spend all three years at the new Hall. The long planning together with the support of a countless number of West Hartford citizens resulted in the opening of a building designed to provide exciting educational opportunities. Therefore, there has been keen interest in finding out how the facilities would be used.

Thanks to the attitudes of members of the first group to receive its entire high school education at 975 North Main Street, a loyalty and spirit have developed which give the new Hall a uniqueness of its own. Examples of effective uses of the facilities are too numerous to mention. Suffice it to say that creative spaces have brought curriculum changes, additional team taught courses, up-to-date audio-visual presentations over dial-select, extensive activities with the latest resources in the Media Center, mini-courses on subjects proposed by students, an increased concern for youth to explore special interests and aptitudes independently, and an open campus with the freedom to make decisions responsibly.

Because of the feelings which several seniors have, they were willing to serve as guides to those from our community who appreciated chances to see what flexible spaces can mean. Thus, a class which in its first year was somewhat awed upon arrival at the new Hall quickly upheld and enhanced the school's reputation.

The new Hall life style benefited by a high percentage of the seniors participating in such co-curricular activities as sports, clubs, musical events, drama, dances, etc. School was not merely an eight to three endeavor but included afternoons, evenings, weekends and became a second home.

Judging from the talents which the Class of 1973 has shared these past three years, the futures of its members are bright. For your achievements, I proudly commend you. For your indispensable roles in getting the new Hall properly launched, I am grateful. If the school has in fact contributed to your development, those who worked to get a forward-looking building have had their dreams come true.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Dunn

ENGLISH

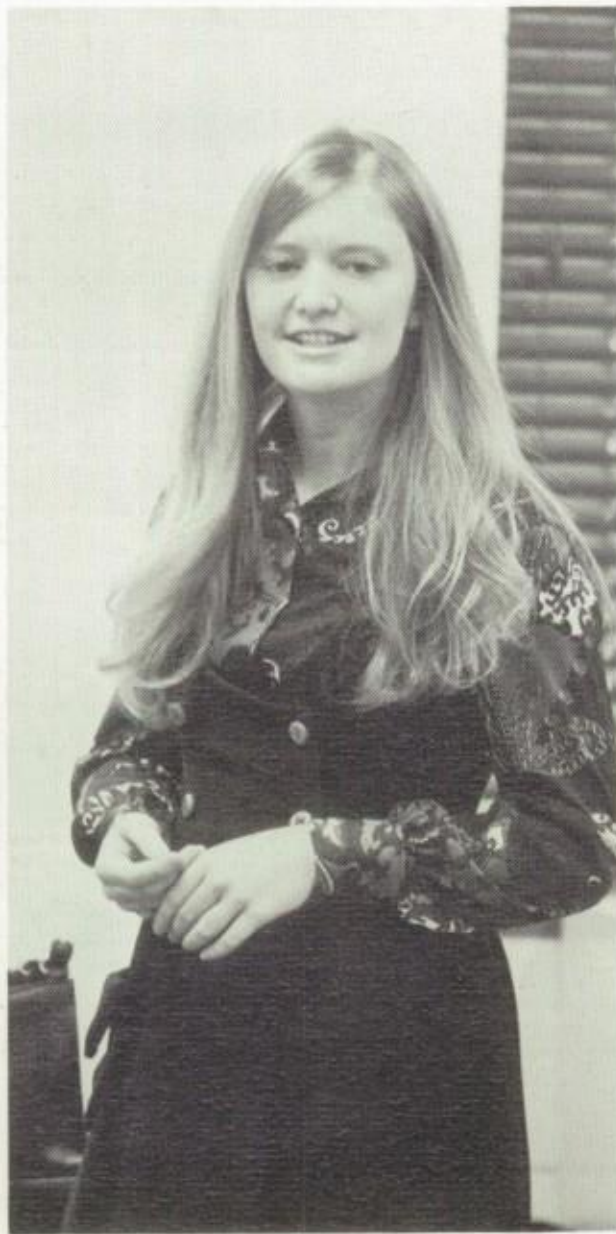

I have always thought of learning in terms of growth and change. That is why I am confident much learning goes on at Hall. Obviously, I am most aware of it within the English Department since that is where I expend my energies. The people in this department enjoy their work; they are committed to it. They are flexible and capable of change. They have not stopped learning.

It is, in fact, a pleasure to teach English at Hall. It is an engaging, challenging, even existential pleasure. You never know what's going to happen next, but you jolly well know you're alive!

Language is one of the most critical aspects of the culture of a community, and the study of foreign language is one of the single most effective tools through which communication and understanding can be accomplished. Best to You, Dr. Joralnick!
Carl Steidel

Even though many of you for a few more years will continue to lead a life engaged mostly in consumption (a consumption of "formal" education), most of you have come to realize that decisions have to be made for a life of action as well. The desire "to do my own thing" — which is sometimes tantamount to withdrawal — may not be allowed by the real world. But if you are really concerned about a possible identity crisis, I suggest that you will know who you are, what your origins were when productive membership in the community is deeply felt. One way to do this quickly is the activist way — get into a little hot water occasionally. It will also help to keep you clean.

FOOTBALL

Autumn of 1972 could be characterized as an unpredictable season for the Warrior football team captained by Frank Chaves and Tim Klein. The first four games were setbacks and dropped the team out of championship consideration. Coach Robinson's gridmen, however, were not demoralized by their lack of good luck and ripped through their next four foes with convincing victories. Overall the team showed great determination and pride despite their lack of size and early success.

Defensively, the Warriors were magnificent throughout the season, allowing only 116 points. The line and linebackers, led by All C.C.I.L. linebacker Frank Chaves and All C.C.I.L. middle guard Jack Hewitt effectively cut off the opposition's running game. The other linemen were Craig Lees, Peter Kalin, Ron Rudner, Paul Waszkelewicz, Jon Greenblatt, Peter Jacquay and Paul Guglielmo. John Houlihan was the other linebacker. The team's defensive backs deserve credit for giving the opposing receivers trouble and for pinning down the wide running plays. They included Jeff Dauch, Ken Sanzo, Rob Matchett, Mark Derderian, Jeff Miller, Bruce Fishman and Tom Cronin. Outstanding defensive performances included Craig Lees' two blocked punts against Maloney, Ken Sanzo's three interception's and seventy and fifty-nine tackles by Frank Chaves and Jack Hewitt, respectively.

Although the offense had trouble scoring early in the season, the running game worked well during the winning streak. Tim Klein rolled up 884 yards including a record 219 against Manchester and tallied eleven touchdowns. Marc Gunnels added 640 yards and forty points. Steve McGowan, Brendan McDermott and Chris McNeil also ran the Hall option offense well. The key to the offense's success was the blocking of center Jeff Poirier, All C.C.I.L. guard Stu Conn, guards, Mike Glass and Greg Driscoll and tackles Mike Waszkelewicz, Bill Neptin and Bob Zaccagnino. Ends Bruce Banks, Rich Andorsky, Mike Czorniak also blocked well and made clutch catches when the running game stalled.

Hall should improve upon its record next year. With Mr. Robinson's consistently tough defense and six returning lettermen, including Co-captains-elect Paul Waszkelewicz and Tom Cronin, the prospects look good.

SOCCER

Coach David Deacon, in his sixteenth year of coaching, has once more organized another outstanding Hall High soccer team. Led by Co-captains Joe Friedman and Jeffrey Zieky, the Warriors compiled a fine 9-5 season record, placing them in the state tournament. Hall was unfortunate to draw second rank to cross-town rival Conard, who the Warriors had lost to twice previously in regular season play.

After falling to a disappointing 2-3 record, the bootmen played outstanding ball, winning seven of their remaining nine games, including routs of 5-1 over Platt and 6-1 against South Windsor. The season was also highlighted by Goalie Joe Friedman's five shut-outs, four consecutively over Bristol Eastern, Bristol Central, Maloney, and Windham.

Captain Jeff Zieky led Hall scorers with ten goals, three of them in one game against Platt. Juniors Alex Shafer and Co-captain elect Chris Andrews each tallied six goals. The offense was also sparked by senior Steve Manning and juniors Jim Fishman. Other linemen included seniors Mark Shoag, David Strumpf, Tom Pierce, Jose Fung, Ben Zola, and junior Mike Rollins. The defense was led by seniors Steve Chotiner, Jeff Robbins, Ron Morris, Tom Spignesi, Jeff Rosenblatt, and Art Ruzensky. Other contributing seniors were Phil Furniss, Don Kanare, Andy Knowlton, Don Levin, John Menz, George Rozwadowski, Mike Specter and Mark Stone. Lettering underclassmen include Mike Dylag, Brian Hogan, and Co-captain Rick Pond. Gaining spots on the All C.C.I.L. first team were senior Jeff Zieky and Steve Chotiner. Voted to the League's second team were senior Jeff Robbins and junior standout Jim Fishman. Achieving Honorable Mention status was senior fullback Tom Spignesi.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Hall High Cross Country team aided by five returning seniors, a remarkably improved group of juniors and three surprising sophomores ran up a record of four wins and five losses in 1972, their best record since 1969. The harriers, under the direction of Coach Fitzpatrick, opened the season with five returning lettermen expecting an improvement over last year's 0-9 record. With great spirit, depth and the tremendous improvement by the underclassmen the team finished with four strong wins while losing only to the most powerful teams in the league.

Senior captain Jim Rutt furnished much of the leadership and finished first on the team in three races. Other seniors who ran well and inspired the team were Rick Kamins, Dave Masterson, Mark Schor and Ron Soltz. Juniors Steve Dauch, Tom Tremblay, Stu Winograd and Captain-elect Frank Leahy improved on their times while consistently coming in among the leaders.

Sophomores Jim Walsh, Frank Gionfriddo and Jim Steinberg were outstanding throughout the year and made the difference in several races. Walsh won two races, finished first on the team in six others and was named to the All C.C.I.L. team. He also ran a fine race against Conard, losing to Art Sullivan by only one step.

Next year will give Hall its best chance to win the league title. Although the team is losing five senior lettermen eight others including six of the top seven will be running again. In 1973 the harriers should bring back even more victories.

BASKETBALL...

The Warrior basketball team this year could be characterized as "Captain Rock and friends". Chotiner, Hall's Mr. Everything did, in fact, do nearly everything that was expected of him and more. But it was when the other five players, Ted Brown, Lee Dobkin, John Nelson, Jim Fishman and Trip Morse, added significantly to the team effort that the Warriors rolled over their opponents. More often than not the team did play well and consequently won thirteen of their twenty-two games.

The team, made up of two seniors, three juniors and a sophomore opened the season with six surprisingly easy victories, averaging 10 points more than the opposition. Memories of last year's C.C.I.L. champions were revived and Coach Deacon was quoted as saying, "Next year came early." The victory skein, however, gained importance as the young Warriors won only six more games before the C.I.A.C. tournament.

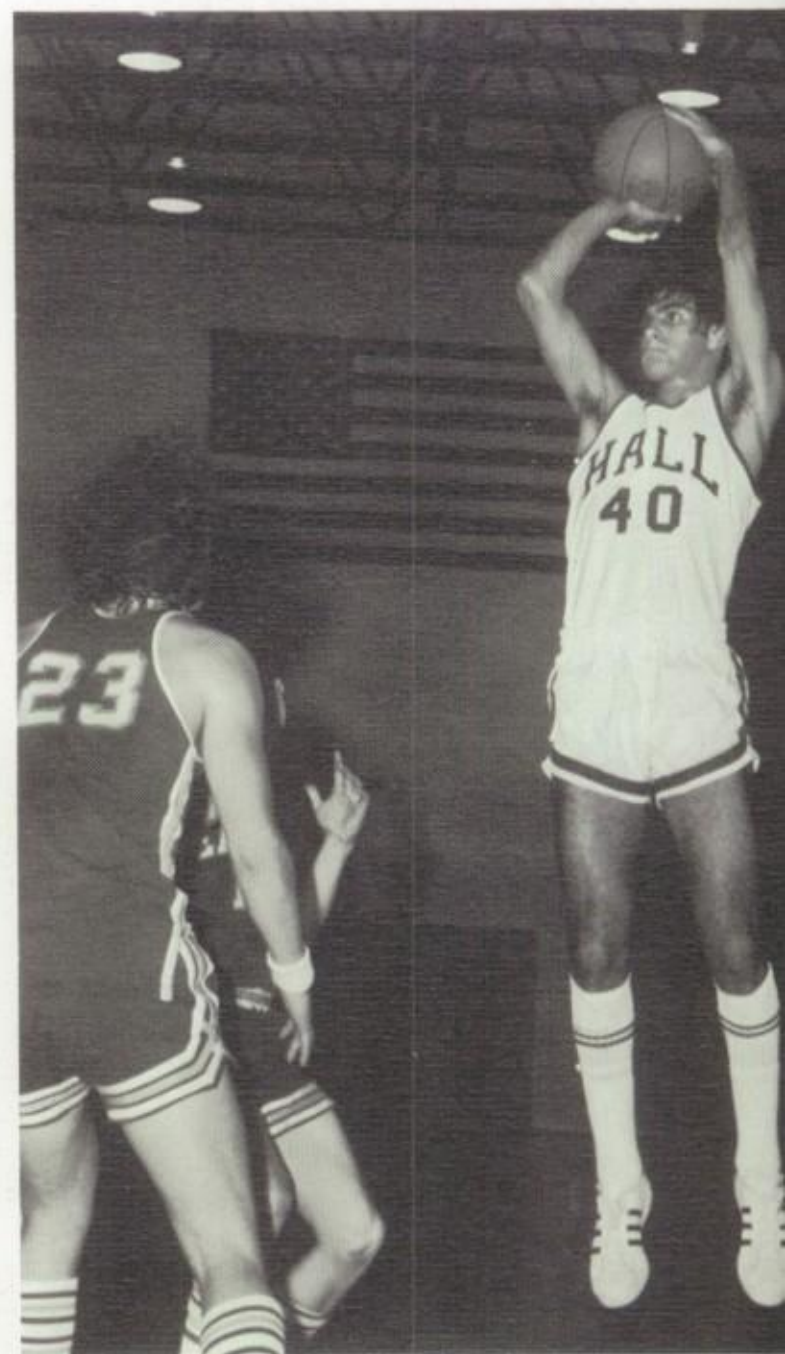

There were numerous highlights in this most exhilarating season. Hall's victory over Windham, 66-64, was the first since 1968. The team's 85 points against a strong Wethersfield team, including 25 by Chotiner and 24 by soph John Nelson, was the high for the season. In the playdown round of the tournament Hall avenged a loss to Conard four days before by running them off the court 62-41. Junior Jim Fishman sparked the team with 19 points, many in the cold first half and Chotiner added 22. Thirty of Hall's points were scored in the fourth quarter.

Chotiner broke many scoring records while achieving the All C.C.I.L. team for the third consecutive year, the first time in memory a player has done that. Rock accumulated 494 points this season, breaking his own record of 378, making 1197 for his career, breaking the record of 786. His season average of 22.5 and career average of 20.6 are new Hall records. Chotiner led the team with 283 rebounds and 112 steals. Against the two Meriden teams, Rock had four great games, averaging 29 points, including a season high of 35 in a successful shootout with Platt's Jerry Seppa. Against #1 ranked Holy Cross in the C.I.A.C. tournament Chotiner tallied 28 and led a determined Hall team whose rally fell short only in the last few minutes of the game. Rock was chosen by the Hartford Times for its Player of the Week honors and its all-suburban team.

Lee Dobkin provided the muscle under the boards, hauling in 234 caroms and scoring 230 points, mostly on rebounds and short jump shots. His season high of 19 was also in the game against Platt. Jim Fishman was Hall's most consistent playmaker. His 119 assists led the team. Trip Morse played the other guard position. His ball handling complemented the team's style of play and he often scored in double figures. One of Coach Deacon's pleasantest surprises was forward John Nelson. John's total of 275 points was the second highest on the squad and he led the team with his 43% shooting accuracy.

Ted Brown, the only other senior on the team, was plagued by injuries and the flu throughout the season. He was, however, very effective as a center-forward swingman and played a key role in many victories including the second Windham game.

Coach Deacon and the four returning lettermen look forward to a successful season next year.

WRESTLING . . .

Hall's rugged matmen, led by Co-captains Aaron Kaplowitz and Dave Strumpf, wrestled to a successful 10-4 record while wrestling perhaps the state's toughest schedule. After three quick victories, including a 43-9 rout over Wamogo, the Warriors fell to state powers Avon and Ledyard before streaking to victories over their next five opponents. Rough breaks and 1 point decisions led the grapplers to their first league defeat, a heartbreaking 19-18 struggle at the hands of Bristol Central. The Warriors' 7-2 record was good for second place in the the tough C.C.I.L.

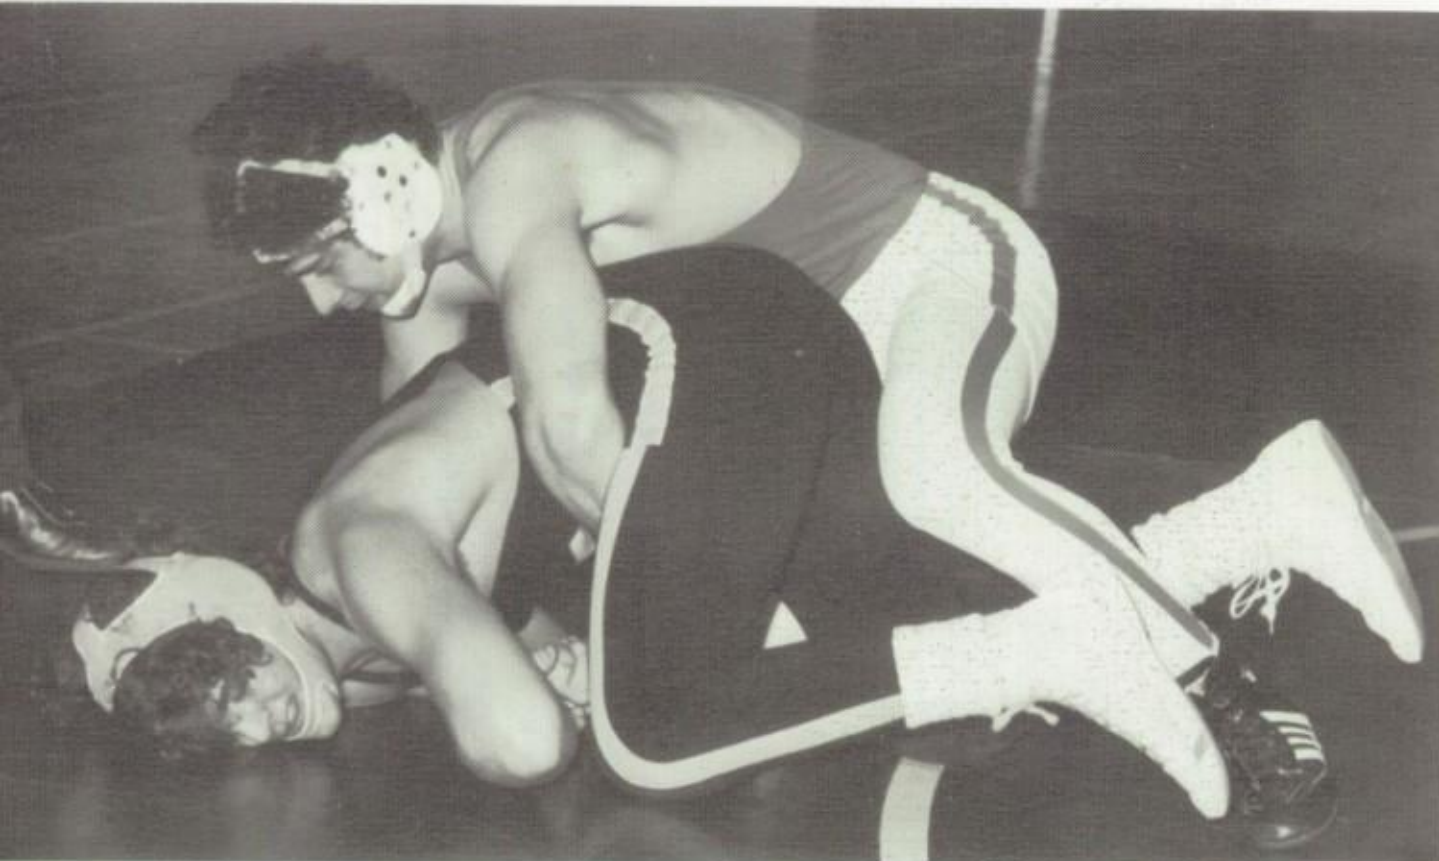

Coach Frank Robinson's wrestlers captured first place at the Northwest Sectionals for the second straight year as the matmen finished well ahead of Avon and Bristol Central. A first place finish by senior Aaron Kaplowitz in the 167 lb. class and second place efforts by senior Dick Armstrong in the 155 lb. class and junior standout Les Granow in the 105 lb. class helped Hall walk away with the team trophy. Kaplowitz then went on to the State Tournament to finish fourth. Also placing fourth in the state from Hall was senior Ben Zola in the 114 lb. class.

Co-captain elect Les Granow led the team in pins with 6, while Zola and senior Pete Kalin pinned opposing men 5 times each. Granow and Kaplowitz each led the team with 12-2 individual dual-meet records while Kalin wrestled to a 10-4 mark wrestling his time between the 185 lb. and unlimited weight classes. Armstrong worked his way to a 10-3 record while co-captain elect Dave Kosofsky fought to a 9-4 mark.

Elected to the All-C.C.I.L. second team were Kaplowitz and Armstrong, while Zola, Strumpf, Kalin, Granow and Kosofsky received Honorable Mention.

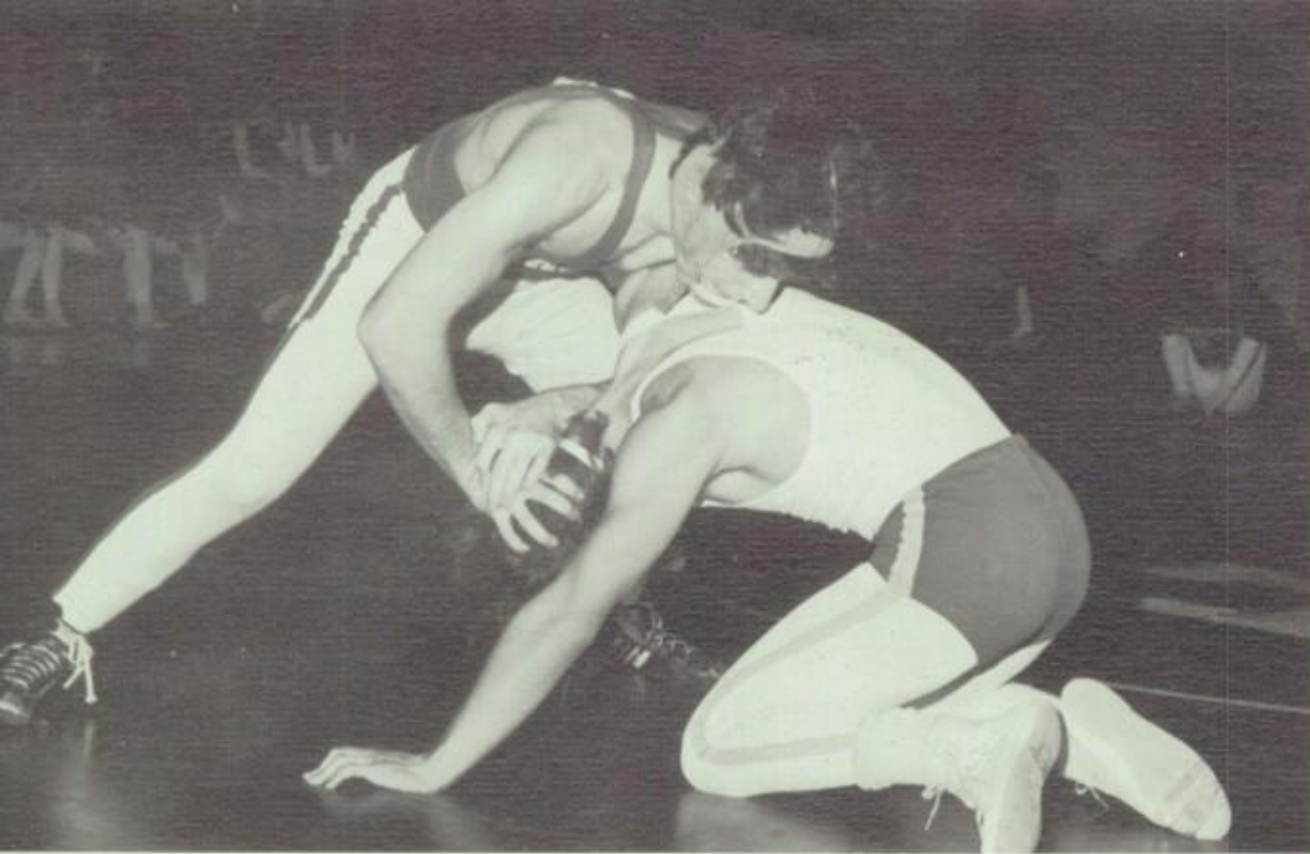

Also wrestling for Hall were seniors Dave Strumpf, Jeff Miller, George Rozwadowski, Phil Furniss, Joe Grella, Mark Derderian, Al Karmelin, junior Rich Ranard, and sophomore Nick Lenge. Seniors Mark Schor, Marc Krattenstein, and Bob Levine also contributed to the grappler's fine season.

HOCKEY...

Hall's hockey team, led by new Coach Ronald Duncan and Co-Captains Jamie Milligan and Peter O'Donnell produced a disappointing 5-11-2 record. The pucksters opened the season with guarded optimism, having lost five of last year's top six scorers but returned five junior defensemen. Hall allowed less goals this year than last although they played four more games. However, the lack of a consistent scoring threat to augment Co-Captains O'Donnell and Milligan prevented the team from achieving a winning season.

Highlights of the season included 1-0 shutouts by January-graduate Shannon Russell over Simsbury and North Haven. Bill O'Brien and Milligan scored the winning goals in these two games. High one-game scoring efforts were Bill Morrell's three-goal hat trick against Kingswood, Milligan's two goals against Rockville in the opening game of the season and O'Donnell's three two-goal games. Defensemen Jim Ryan, Tom Queno, Frank Leahy, John Stone and Peter Blue played well throughout the entire season. Soph goalie Jeff Blauner played with distinction after replacing Russell.

Spearheading the offense were O'Donnell and Milligan with 13 goals and 2 assists and 4 goals and 9 assists, respectively. Other scorers included Queno with 3 goals and Mike Callahan, Bill Sherts, Mike Caron, Bill Schreiber and Stone with 1 each.

A.F.S. STUDENT MAKES COMPARISONS

Only by living in a foreign country can you really get the feeling of its people. Although an ocean apart, people in Yugoslavia are facing almost the same problems as people in the United States. There isn't a big difference among people, but there is a difference in the way they arrange their lives. I never imagined that I would spend a year of my life here, and I am happy being here. It is hard to accept new ideas, but it is even harder to face the fact that I may never have the opportunity to use them again.

Doc's Dream Team

Doc Dyber's 1973 juggernaut rolled over its opponents in 10 of 12 games including its last 8 in a row to end Hall's long LaCrosse drought. Tri-Captains Tom Spignesi, Ron Morris and Jeff Poirier led the Warriors to first-ever victories over Longmeadow, Wilton, Loomis and Westminister. The two wins over both Conard and Northhampton were also for the first time. The team's defeats of Conard and Roger Ludlowe and split of 2 games with Wilton earned them the title of Co-State Public School Champions.

High scorers Ken Sanzo (27 goals), Brendan McDermott and Morris (33 and 32 points), defenseman Frank Chaves, Mike Specter, Mike Waszkelwicz, John Brigham and Mark Susman and Goalie Steve McGowan brought explosiveness to both ends of the field. Other valuable middies included Rob Matchett, Jeff Miller, Mike Czorniak, Frank McVerry, Terry Tierney, Bill Howard, Paul Guglielmo, Jim Fishman, Craig Bloomquist, Chris Luby and Phil Warchel.

Bird in Flight

Hello and take wing!
 A Hello is forever,
 An echo in our minds
 For a million years.
 And though your wings
 Will slash through the
 currents of time;
 Our growth will be
 together — as one.
 As a thousand doves
 on wing and a moment
 frozen in amber;
 We will stay together
 forever — as friends.

Steve Madoff

Leave-taking

This is our leave-taking; this is the point of departure.

After today, many of us will not meet again,
 But the friends we have made —

Those among us with whom the bonds are strongest —
 Will meet again in our many walks of life.

In a month, a year, even ten years

I will see you again, my friend;

And the meeting will be one of joy and of sorrows,

Laughter and tears, memories, news,

And above all, that most wonderful knowledge

That I am with a dear friend once again.

Carry on.
